CHARLES A. COOK.

A Democrat Deprecates Newspaper Criticism of Him.

Editor Telegram:

Having observed a tendency in many of the newspapers to greatly belittle Hon. C. A. Cook, an aspirant for the position of brigadier general in the volunteer army, I deem it but just and generous that the man should have his deserts.

I am a democrat. He is a republican.

If President McKinley sees proper to appoint to this position a man whom he thinks by nature fitted for the responsibility, 'though not a West Pointer, or who was not old enough to have served in the late war, he might go far before finding a better appointee than Mr. Cook.

I have the pleasure of knowing him. He is, primarily, a gentleman, courteous, manly. He is a lawyer of well-known and unquestionable ability. He is thoroughly cultured—a graduate of Princeton University.

No man, be he democrat, populist, or republican, can dare gainsay the sterling integrity of "Charlie Cook." He is the son of honor. Above all, he is, under all circumstances, morally and physically courageous.

Possessing, as he does, these many qualifications necessary for a successful commanding officer, it strikes me as hardly fair to belittle the man for his patriotic aspirations.

If it be thought imperative that none but West Pointers or veterans be appointed to command then criticise the president, don't ridicule or malign the aspirant.

But if a nation should decree that none should command who had not seen previous actual service, might she not at the same time be fittingly likened to the fond mother who forbade her son to go near the water until he had learned to swim?

Mr. Cook needs no flattering encomiums; but does not merit being placed in the catagory of "pie-hunting, cross-roads politicians."

SHAFTER'S PLAN OF ATTACK

Will Take Santiago by Siege Instead of by Assault,

ENEMY STRONGLY ENTRENCHED

Health of the Army Excellent And City Can Be Taken in Two Days. Burial of Rough Riders.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Playa del Este, June 29—News has reached the Cuban headquarters and has since been communicated by Gen. Castillo to Gen. Shafter that the Spaniards are strongly entrenched at Santa Ursula and Lagunas. Both places are important entrances to the city of Santiago. Two batteries of heavy artillery have been erected, including guns landed from the Spanish cruisers in the harbor. The batteries are supported by a force of 6,000 men. The Cuban outposts have erected a strong fortress and have strengthened the other defences.

General Shafter has issued rigid orders to his troops not to engage the Spaniards unnecessarily, his object being to keep troops strong for a decisive attack later. It is known that the Spaniards are preparing to make a desperate resistance.

METHOD OF ATTACK ON CITY.

Washington, June 29 — Although there is nothing in the plans of the administration upon which to base a belief that Santiago will be attacked within a few days yet there is a general feeling prevalent among the officials that the news of a battle, similar to the one fought last week, will be forthcoming. This opinion has foundation in the fact that General Joe Wheeler's division has moved up to a point within rifle shot of the Spanish outpost surrounding the capital. Some anxiety is felt in regard to the Spanish reinforcements under General Padno. The subjugation of Santiago will not be brought about by storming the earthworks, which are military methods used half a century ago, but by the latest methods of modern warfare. Great use will be made of General Shafter's big guns, which have been landed from the transports, to reduce the defenses of Santiago. As these guns will create havoc among the Spaniards without causing a great loss of life it is believed that this method will ultimately be adopted.

WOUNDED DOING WELL.

Washington, June 29—Major General Shafter cables the war department that the health of the army under his command is remarkably good. No deaths have occurred among those wounded in the battle at La Quasina. The graves of the dead, General Shafter states, have been so marked as to make their identification sure.

ROUGH RIDERS BURIED.

Guantanamo Bay, June 26, via Playa del Este, June 29—The funeral of the dead Rough Riders took place yesterday at a beautiful spot about one mile from the battle field. Men from all the regiments attended the burial. A small iron cross has been erected to mark the spot where the heroes are buried. The effects of the dead soldiers have been preserved and will be handed over to friends.

A ROYAL DECREE.

Madrid, June 29—The Queen Regent will issue a royal decree which will cause to be formed an auxiliary cruiser division at Cadiz.

DETAILS OF OPERATIONS.

Washington, June 29—The navy department issued a bulletin today as follows: On 16th batteries at entrance of Santiago were bombarded and silenced; on 15th fort at Guantanamo destroyed; 16th. Yankee engaged gunboat off Cienfuegos; 17th. Harlowe, with two launches under Powell and Hart, examined Cabanas bay under a fierce fire; 19. Garcia visited the flagship; 20th. transports arrive.

(Signed) Sampson.

DETAILS OF THE BATTLE.

Sibony, June 29—Details of the fight between Rough Riders and Spaniards is as follows: Americans, 17, killed, 63 wounded; Spaniards, 11 wagon loads mortally wounded, 38 left dead on the field. Spanish troops engaged numbered 4,000.

CAMARA RECALLED.

Washington, June 29—The state department is informed that Camara has been recalled from Suez. It has been decided to rush Watson's fleet to Gibraltar.

BATTLE GROUND CELEBRATION.

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH WILL BE FITTINGLY OBSERVED.

The Names of The Speakers, Guests and Marshals—Everything in First Class Order.

It is the purpose of the Battle Ground management to make this year's celebration a greater success than any previous year's and in point of varied attractions and artistic display to eclipse all former efforts. The program, as partly decided upon, gives promise of more than fulfilliing their wishes. With the patriotism displayed since the present war began everybody seems to take an increased interest in the Fourth of July and will celebrate the day this year as never before.

The parade this year will receive greater attention than ever before and will in no wise be a minor feature. It has been placed in charge of Mr. W. G. Mebane, chief marshal, which, in itself, is a sufficient guarantee that it be a success in every sense of the word. Mr. Mebane has appointed the following persons to act as marshals: J. W. Williamson, L. B. Williamson, W. E. Holt, Jr., Howell Fry, Harry Harwood, Robert Gorrell, C. McAdoo, William Tallman, J. Simpson Shenck, H. H. Tate, C. A Penn, H. D. Mebane, George Tate, E. B. King, A. H. Staples, T. S. Horrey, Fred Cone, Norvin Lindheim, Will Powe, Robert Harris, J. R. Boyd and John Williams.

Next Monday morning at nine o'clock the procession will form on Davie street. It will be composed of the marshals, the decorated carriages containing the speakers of the day and distinguished visitors, then will follow private buggies and carriages, and all the persons on horse back with tri-colored bunting decorations on vehicles and horses and the High Point Cornet Band of twenty-eight pieces. All of the fire and hose wagons will be in the parade fully decorated. The last portion of procession will be composed of bicyclists on decorated wheels under the management of Mr. Garland Daniel. The parade will begin promptly at half past nine o'clock. It will proceed from Davie to South Elm street and up that street to the courthouse. From here the procession will go down West Market and from this street to Edgeworth and on to the Battle Ground, reaching this historic place about 11 o'clock.

The owners of all the business houses and residences along the line of march are asked to decorate their houses with flags and bunting.

The annual oration will be delivered by the Honorable Robert M. Douglas, associate justice of the Supreme court of North Carolina. The management has made a wise selection and the visitors are to be congratulated that they will have the pleasure of hearing this scholarly and eloquent son of North Carolina. Among the guests this year will be the Honorable James Boyd, Assistant Attorney General of the United States, Hon. Chas. A. Cooke, who will probably be a Brigadier General by that date, His Excellency, Daniel L. Russell, and very probably a party of congressmen from the national capital, and other distinguished men from the state.

Mr. Zeb V. Taylor, after the oration, will present an elegant oil painting of General George Washington. This portrait was painted by Mr. David L. Clark, of High Point. It will be received on behalf of the Battle Ground company, by Mr. A. B. Kimball. It has been the custom of Mr. Clark to present a portrait of some revolutionary hero or distigiuished gentleman at each annual celebration. Among the oil paintings he has presented may be mentioned the portraits of North Carolina's three signers of the Declaration of Independence—Joseph Hughes, William Hooper and John Penn; also portraits of General Greene, Col. William Washington and the president of the Battle Ground company, Judge David Schenck. They compose one of the handsomest collections of oil portraits in the state.

The roads leading to the Battle Ground are in excellent condition and everything is propitious for a most successful celebration.

In the afternoon two road races will be run from the Battle Ground to Greensboro. At night the annual German will be given at the McAdoo House.

A Note of Thanks.

What Does the "K" Mean?

A Telegram reporter was called into Hiatt & Lamb's store today to solve the mysteries of an egg which they have on exhibition. It is a chicken egg, eight inches around the long way by six and one-half inches around the middle. On the small end is the letter "k" and the k seems to be causing the trouble. Old farmers have already begun to come in and tell that they or their mothers or one of their neighbors had a hen which just before the last war laid an egg something less than a foot in diameter with a W on one end. Of course that "W" brought on the war and now they say this K means that when the war is over we will have a King. Those who cannot swallow this solution are permitted to consider it a a Spanish egg and that the "K" means that Spain will soon be without a king. Solutions left at Hiatt & Lamb's store between 8 o'clock a. m. and 6 p. m. will receive their prompt and careful attention.

SOME HIDDEN HANDS.

Some weeks ago the Telegram pointed out that the territorial extension was likely to become a burning question in national politics. At that time there had been no alignment of parties with regard to it and, indeed, the alignment is by no means strict as yet, but Mr. Bryan having made his Omaha utterance and the Hawaiian annexation bill having come up for discussion in the senate, it has developed that the majority of democrats oppose unwarranted, and possibly unwise, acquisition of territory, while the majority of republicans favor holding all we can get.

Already pro-annexationists are showing an acrimony and a bitterness in their attacks upon those who favor a conservative course that is somewhat astonishing. Those senators who do not believe that, under stress of what is falsely termed a "war necessity," this country should enter upon a period of blind aggression are declared to be traitors to their country and the best friends of Spain. Not the least peculiar part of this business is that papers like the New York Sun and the Times, usually conservative, are outstripping the yellowest sheets in this new-born demagogy.

A certain wing of the press is suffering so sudden an effusion of burning patriotism as to set us wondering. When the cool critic of jingoism all at once out-jingoes the jingo the marvel is enough to give us pause. Almost without exception, the copperhead conservatives have conceived a love for the Kanaka and the Malay that is ultra-missionary and a faith in the conquering destiny of the American eagle that surpasses young enthusiasm. We may be pardoned for doubting the absolute genuineness of it all.

It was only to be expected that the disciples of sensationalism should become evangels of bigness. It is in their line; of a piece with their normal methods. But why, pray, is it that papers which have defended trusts in season and out, have heralded their virtues and denied that they had any vices, why is it that these papers have just discovered that annexation must be adopted as a policy because it is distasteful to the sugar trust? Why is conservatism grown madly radical?

We more than suspect that this furor for faraway islands, for a big navy, a big canal, a big anything to fill the public eye, not always too discerning, is to distract attention from certain problems at home that were becoming troublesome. The eagle's tail will be so elongated as to cover the Philippines and, to preserve the symmetry of its proportions, it can be so spread, incidentally, as to cover a good many things at home, things never known to shrink from a friendly shade.

The democratic party, in so far as it is counseling caution, is undoubtedly right. This country can not adopt a new foreign policy without profoundly influencing, reflexively, its domestic policy. Just what that influence is to be has not yet appeared. It may be good, it may be destructive. Let us think a little further about it The Philippines will not float away, there will still be Kanakas and leprosy in Hawaii, and a sugar trust at home that we can bait at our leisure, a few months hence.

Meantime several hands, now hidden, will appear.

Is not His Excellency and John R. Smith a living example of the lion and the lamb?

Havana is the most marvelous example on record of the ability to live by tightening the belt.

Before the war much was said about the terrible torpedo boat. Now we hear of it chiefly when laid up for repairs.

At the risk of being unpatriotic, be it said that carrying the war into the enemy's country is by no means a holiday job.

Headline artists who have been promising a big battle tomorrow since the first troops reached Tampa will please recall the elusiveness of that date.

If Walter Wellman succeeds in finding the north pole expansionists will insist on sending a corps or two to hold it for a coaling, or at least a cooling station. Send the expansionists.

If the Vesuvius is an unqualified success why has it not wiped Morro Castle off the bluff at Santiago, as experts in explosives have repeatedly declared she could do, if not disabled by the enemy?

General News in a Nutshell.

Queen Margherita, of Italy, who was formerly one of the greatest beauties of Europe, has been losing her good looks through increasing corpulency. In the hope of reducing her weight she has taken to golf playing, and it follows without saying that Roman society has now taken up golf with enthusiasm.

"We know of but one opinion voiced by William Jennings Bryan that redounds to his credit," says a western newspaper. "He stands with Grover Cleveland and many another wiser than himself in opposition to a policy of territorial expansion."

It is very easy to demonstrate by figures that Ireland might be made to prosper, but it would be somewhat difficult to carry the theory into practice. A statistician says that the two thousand parishes in the Emerald Isle ought to turn out fifty pigs weekly. This would give a desirable total of 5,200,000 annually, which, at a fair average price, would yield an income of $71,500,000.

Criminals in the Sandwich Islands are exempt from punishment upon reaching a spot called the Rock of Refuge, where superstition—or religion—affords protection. At this rock the law breaker may remain in perfect safety, supplied with food by his family or friends, until he can escape from the country; but he is never allowed to return to his own tribe.

In view of the assertion recently made by the Spanish newspapers to the effect that "there are no colleges in America" it is interesting to know that we have 430 universities and colleges, 8,472 professors and teachers therein, and 124,684 students.

The commanding officer of one of the Kansas regiments encamped at San Francisco recently told his subordinate officers to send to his tent any of the men who knew how to drive mules. Each captain accordingly marched his command to the colonel's headquarters at the appointed hour, for the colonel is said to be the only native of Kansas, who does not know, nor does not think he knows, how to drive a mule.

There is much to be learned about American customs and characteristics from the Spanish newspapers. One of them, published in Barcelona, says: "The average height among the Americans is 5 feet 2, and they have never produced an athlete. This is due to their living almost entirely upon vegetables, as they ship all their beef out of the country, so eager are they to make money. There is no doubt that one full-grown Spaniard can defeat any three men in America."

Apropos of the scientific expedition which is to be sent to the Philippines by the Smithsonian Institution, it is said that there is much to be learned by exploration in that quarter of the globe. Not long ago an eagle, three times the size of any yet discovered, was found there; and now a German scientist has come across a gigantic flower of which the smallest buds are as big as the head of a child. It has five petals and a stalk two inches thick, and is over three feet high. The flower "plucked" by the discoverer weighed twenty-five pounds.

Bad management keeps more people in poor circumstances than any other one cause. To be successful one must look ahead and plan ahead so that when a favorable opportunity presents itself he is ready to take advantage of it. A little forethought will also save much expense and valuable time. A prudent and careful man will keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house, the shiftless fellow will wait until necessity compels it and then ruin his best horse going for a doctor and have a big doctor bill to pay, besides; one pays out 25 cents, the other is out a hundred dollars and then wonders why his neighbor is getting richer while he is getting poorer. The True Remedy.

W. M. Repine, editor Tiskilwa, Ill., "Chief," says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs and colds. Experimented with many others, but never got the true remedy until we used Dr. King's New Discovery. No other remedy can take its place in our home as in it we have a certain and sure cure for coughs, colds, whooping cough, etc." It is idle to experiment with other remedies, even if they are urged on you as just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery. They are not as good, because this remedy has a record of cures and besides is guaranteed. It never fails to satisfy. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug rtore.

Baby's Face.

Dexter, Granville Co., N. C.,
March 30, 1898.

MRS. JOE PERSON,

Dear Madam—About the last of December there appeared something like heat on our baby's face. On the fourth sunday in January his face and head were filled with running sores and he suffered severely. We were satisfied the dreadful disease was eczema. On the above mentioned day Rev. K. D. Holmes and Mr. Herbert E. Crews recommended to us in the highest terms, Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. With the great confidence we had in these gentlemen, we proceeded at once to use it. Two months later, the fourth Sunday in March, Rev. Mr. Holmes saw the same child and could scarcely recognize him. The child is seven months old, his face is well, and there are only slight signs of the disease about his head. He is the picture of health and is hearty and strong. We gladly recommend Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy for all forms of eczema, and think that it is the bast blood purifier on the market. With best wishes, I am,

Your friend.

Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discouery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with la grippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into hasty consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store, and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from first dose, and half dozen dollar bottles cured her sound and well. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds is guaranteed to do this good work. Try it. Free trial bottles at C. E. Holton's drug store.

The Horrors of Nervousness.

Those who are going through the indescribable terrors of this dreadful disease, require no description of the agonies they constantly suffer. But why suffer? Good blood gives good nerves; and gives good blood. It is a nerve strengthener and restorer, the efficacy of which cannot be over-estimated; when it is learned that its absolute freedom from poisonous drugs or opiates, makes it safe for use in the hands of sick or inexperienced persons, there is an increased appreciation of it. JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA is a specific for impoverished or impotent nerves; it feeds the nervous system to high health, provides for physical and brain endurance, cheerfulness, happiness and energy.

Johnston's Sarsaparilla

Our thirty-six page illustrated book contains some interesting pages on Nerve Exhaustion. It is free for the asking. Quart bottle, $1.00.

I was seriously afflicted with a cough for several years, and last fall had a more severe cough than ever before. I have used many remedies without receiving much relief, and being recommended to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, by a friend, who, knowing me to be a poor widow, gave it to me, I tried it, and with the most gratifying results. The first bottle relieved me very much and the second bottle has absolutely cured me. I have not had as good health for 20 years. Respectfully, Mrs. Mary A. Beard, Claremore, Ark. Sold by C. E. Holton.

AN ENTHUSIASTIC GATHERING.

The Farewell Meeting to the Colored Company a Success.

A large and enthusiastic crowd assembled in the Academy of Music last night to attend the farewell meeting given to the colored volunteers. Encouraging and inspiring speeches were made by prominent colored men. President Dudley, of the A. & M. college spoke of the duty of the soldier to his country and what would be expected of him. Rev. M. M. Jones, pastor of the colored M. E. Church, and Rev. J. A. Whitted, general missionary of the state, spoke words of encouragement and farewell to the boys and bade them be cheerful and confident that the side of right would conquer in the end. D. J. Gilmer spoke of the possibilities of the colored soldier and of the honor he may gain on the battle field. He said there are Hobsons and Deweys among colored men and the war would doubtless bring their heroism to the front. Dr. Dellinger spoke along the same line and added that the negro after enjoying the blessing received from the country in times of peace would shoulder his arms and march to her aid in times of war. The meeting was full of enthusiasm and patriotism.

When first asked to raise a company Dr. Dellinger was told to secure 60 recruits but later the number was reduced to 40. In answer to the roll call last night 47 men responded. This is a good showing and reflects credit on the race.

The volunteers will leave on the early morning train tomorrow for Fort Macon where they will be examined and mustered into service. No great trouble was experienced in securing the men who now seem eager to go to the front.

As a large number of the volunteers have no money it has been suggested that the people of Greensboro make up a purse and give to them. The idea is not a bad one by any means. Those who can do so are asked to give their colored servants and employees permission to go to the station and see the colored soldiers off.

At Muir's Chapel.

The lawn party at Muir's Chapel last night was well attended, a large party of Greensboro folks going out in buggies and on wheels. The rain came just as the crowd was leaving. Everyone spent a pleasant evening.
